Welcome to our house!

Dear Guest,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the house of Twenty Five! Out of all the places out there, you are here right now, listening to our story. So thank you for the opportunity! Twenty Five was born to be unique, just like how each one of us is. It was designed and built to be a place where everyone can chill and relax while enjoying the food and creating memories. The pandemic reminded me how important human connections are, and how bonding with people brightens up my days. So here I am, along with the team of Twenty Five, presenting you and welcoming you to our house.

We hope you come as a guest, and leave as a friend. See you again soon!
